

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATIVE BLACK CAUCUS FOUNDATION

The North Carolina Legislative Black Caucus Foundation's (NCLBCF's) mission is to provide scholarships to students attending any of North Carolina's ten (10) public or private Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). For over 20 years, the Foundation has been able to sustain its mission with your support and that of the company or organization you represent.

We are pleased to announce that our education scholarship fundraising campaign for 2022 has been launched and will run through August 1, 2022. The 2022 Education Scholarship Event will be held in person (and virtually for those who cannot attend) on Thursday, June 23, 2022 "from 10:30 AM – 3:00 PM", at the Sheraton Imperial Hotel RDU at Research Triangle Park - 4700 Emperor Boulevard - Durham, NC. Our theme is HBCUs: A New Generation of Leaders Shaping the World and its Economy.

I am pleased to report that the Foundation met its 2021 fundraising goal and $200,000 in scholarship funds have been awarded to our 10 HBCUs. As you may be aware, many minority students are facing additional economic challenges due to the ongoing pandemic. As a result, we are increasing our goal for 2022; therefore, we are asking that you increase your 2021 gift by 20%. With your generous support, we sincerely believe we can not only reach, but surpass the increased goal. Your company and its gift will be recognized at the 2022 Education Scholarship Event Luncheon.

For your convenience, a list of the donor levels is attached. Please email your donor level commitment and company logo to me at info@nclbcf.org. You will then receive an invoice from the treasurer, Warren Arrington. If additional assistance or information is needed, please contact me, Senator Robinson, at the above email or (919) 715-3042.

Additional details regarding the 2022 Education Scholarship Event will be forthcoming. On behalf of the North Carolina Legislative Black Caucus Foundation, we look forward to your contribution and participation in our 2022 Event. We hope you will continue to make this event a part of your annual budget. Thank you for your commitment.

Sincerely,

Gladys A. Robinson
